Council on East Asian Studies

The Council on East Asian Studies at Yale University (CEAS) was founded in 1961 and continues a long tradition of East Asian Studies at Yale. CEAS provides an important interdisciplinary forum for academic exploration and support related to the study of China, Japan, and Korea. For over fifty years, it has promoted education about East Asia both in the Yale curricula and through lectures, workshops, conferences, film series, cultural events, and other educational activities open to students, faculty, K-16 educators, and the general public.

New Haven Museum

The New Haven Museum, founded in 1862 as the New Haven Colony Historical Society, is located in downtown New Haven at 114 Whitney Avenue. The Museum is currently celebrating 150 years of collecting, preserving and interpreting the history and heritage of Greater New Haven. Through its collections, exhibitions, programs and outreach, the Museum brings over 375 years of New Haven history to life.

Yale-China Association

The Yale-China Association inspires people to learn and serve together. Founded in 1901 by graduates of Yale University, we foster long-term relationships that improve education, health, and cultural understanding in China and the United States. We envision a U.S.-China relationship of mutual understanding and profound respect nurtured by collaboration among individuals and institutions.

LION DANCE, 10:00 AM

Location: Whitney Avenue between Grove and Trumbull

The Wan Chi Ming Hung Gar Institute's lion dance troupe will perform down the streets of Whitney Avenue to kick off the Lunar New Year. The two lions dance for cabbages (a symbol for wealth) and hongbao (a red envelope with money) to bring good luck to the shopkeepers and to ward off bad spirits. Come feed your hongbao to the lions. Look out for a special greeting by the mayor, and performances at the intersection of Whitney and Audubon by ECA's Repertory Dance Company, Wudang Kungfu Academy, Connecticut Yankee Chorus, and the Southern Connecticut Chinese School children's dancers. The finale will be a demonstration of the lion dance troupe's martial arts and collaborative skill.
