HOST A YALE-CHINA ARTS FELLOW

How can you foster creativity and build skills in cultural literacy in New Haven through artists and arts communities?

Consider serving as a host to a Yale-China Arts Fellow from Hong Kong between January 15, 2016 and June 30, 2016.

Host families provide:
- A single bedroom
- A full bathroom
- Access to kitchen and other common areas of house
- Wifi access

Yale-China provides professional support, and will assist the fellows in their adjustment to living in a new place.

Meet our 2015-2017 HKETO-NY Arts Fellows!

CAI Ying

Born in Xiamen, CAI Ying is an independent dance artist based in Hong Kong. She received her BFA in Chinese dance from the Beijing Dance Academy. She later completed an MFA in choreography at the Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts. As a choreographer, Ying has been commissioned by a number of international entities including Singapore National Arts Council, Korea International T&C Dance Festival, Sibu International Dance Festival, Hong Kong Dance Festival, Hong Kong Arts Development Council, and the Hong Kong Leisure and Cultural Services Department. As a performer, her recent performance credits include Returning Spirit (2015), A Dialogue Between “women” (2015), Umbrella (2014), On the Road Again (2011-2013). Her upcoming dance piece, wǒ mén, will premiere in the 2016 Hong Kong Arts Festival. In addition to choreographing and performing, CAI Ying is also an experienced dance teacher and has had appointments from a wide range of institutions and organizations, such as the Singaporean Ministry of Education, Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts, and Hong Kong Dance Federation.

HUI Phoebe

Phoebe HUI is an interdisciplinary artist and researcher primarily working in the relationship between language, sound, and technology. Most recently, Phoebe was a lecturer in the Visual Arts and Culture program at the Hong Kong Design Institute. She is the recipient of a number of grants and awards, including the Hong Kong Arts Development Council Young Artist Award (Media Art), Asian Cultural Council Altius Fellowship, Bloomberg Emerging Artist Award, Solo Show Grant from Watermans to coincide with 2012 Olympics Games in London, Hong Kong Arts Development Council Art Scholarship, and the Hong Kong Design Association Design Student Scholarship. She has presented her research-based art practice and papers in different places such as ISEA, MIT Media Lab, Asian Contemporary Art Week, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Phoebe received her M.F.A. from the UCLA Department of Design Media Arts, her M.A. in Fine Art from Central Saint Martins College of Art and Design, and her B.A. in Creative Media from City University of Hong Kong.